Using your Fanvil phone

The line keys should be lit Green at all times. Once you pick up the receiver, speakerphone or if a call is coming in, Line Key turns red. To verify you are online, there are green icons in the buttons on the left of the screen with a green phone icon next to your extension number, there may also be a green button and green handset with the word SP 1/2/3. Check the top right corner of the screen, there should be a small monitor icon, it should not have anything in the box; if it has a X in the monitor please verify you can reach the internet by opening your internet browser on your computer, search on any topic and ensure you get search results, if you do not get results then the Internet is unavailable at your location, check your cables, if there is still no connection contact your carrier. If you do get search results and the phone icon is clear please contact dais support at: support@daiscorp.com. Hold down the Up arrow key for 5 seconds, we will need the third item, the IPv4 address.
